

Could you be an Athletics Official?

At London Athletics we're pleased to offer this unique training opportunity for those interested in officiating at Athletics events and improving their professional development within the sport.

What is it?

A unique and FREE development programme for you to become a qualified athletics official in either Track or Time Keeping (both include a Health and Safety module).

When?

An initial one-day training course on Sunday 20th November 2016 at West Wing, Guy's Campus, King's College London, London, SE1 9RT, to be followed by officiating at a minimum of four of the events shown below during 2016/2017. Options for events include:

- ◆ LUCA Indoor championships (27th November 2016)
- ◆ LY tshall Finals (22nd March 2017)
- ◆ LUCA Outdoor Competition #1 (March 2017 tbc)
- ◆ LUCA Outdoor Competition #2 (April 2017 tbc)
- ◆ LUCA Outdoor Competition #3 (May 2017 tbc)
- ◆ LY thletics (June 2017 tbc)
- ◆ LY thletics finals (9th July 2017)
- ◆ England Athletics Regional Disability Competition (May/June 2017 tbc)

What are the requirements?

- ◆ To attend the one-day training course on Sunday 20th November 2016
- ◆ To attend and officiate at a minimum of four listed competitions
- ◆ Minimum age 16
- ◆ London College or University student

What will I get out of it?

- ◆ An accredited UK: Athletics Level 1 Official qualification
- ◆ Unique event experience at some of the leading local athletics events in London
- ◆ An opportunity to become more involved in one of the most popular sports in the UK
- ◆ Dedicated support for any advice and guidance you might need within Athletics
- ◆ After officiating at four of the events you'll gain your qualification
- ◆ After officiating at six of the events you'll get a free officials T-shirt and hat
- ◆ After officiating at eight of the events you'll get 50% off a Level 2 Official qualification

For more information, please contact London Athletics at londonrun@englandathletics.org

